Bomb Proof Grey Neck Reining 3 Year Old Trail Horse	$ 12,000
--	------------------

Description

Jasper is one in a million 3 year old!! He's had 6 mths of professional training and tons of trail riding! Ones like this don't come around very often, his breeding is the reason he's so laid back and loves people! Jasper's Sire Secret Sam is also a beautiful grey stallion and Jasper will look just like him as he matures! He has a smooth 4 beat gait, neck reins, side passes and moves to the mounting block with a snap of a finger! Jasper rides great in a group and also confident out alone on the trails! This beautiful boy is easy to ride, he's fine just to walk on the trails but if you wait to gait just collect the reins and he goes into his wonderful gait! Jasper is suitable for about anyone that knows the basics of riding and that rides enough to keep a young horse going. His owner is 72 and loves riding him but he's gotten too tall for her now. He stands great for the Farrier mounting, dismount, stands in cross ties great, bathing, leads and loads in the trailer. Up to date on his vaccines, teeth, shoes, coggins and health certificate. Watch this sweet boy's video to see how wonderful he is and all the things he can do!
