$ 15,000

Description

Moonraker is a breeders dream! He's 14.3 and just turned 13 years old. He's a gorgeous Palomino with a cream & silver gene so you can get many colors with him but he has thrown a lot of Palomino and Chocolate! He has a big flashy front end and is one amazing show horse! He's done very well in the show ring, he's Reserve Grand Champion in the 2021 World NMH Show! Moonraker has good ground manners and easy to breed with! He has perfect Rocky conformation, beautiful head and ears and typically throws himself to his offsprings which is pretty unusual since the mares usually pass on the looks! This stallion is easy to ride if you are use to a big flashy gait already. Moonraker has been out on the trails, he's not spooky at all since he's use to big crowds of people, loud PA, cars, side by sides and horses all around him! He stands for the Farrier, mount, dismount, bathing, leads and loads. If you're looking for a show horse that you can win on or a nice breeding stallion look no farther! Watch his video to see this amazing boy!! Moonraker is located in Frenchburg, KY.
