

14.3 Gorgeous Sweet Chocolate Mare

$ 10,000

Description

Honey is a drop dead beautiful mare with a long flaxen forelock and mane! She looks like a stallion with all her hair and build! Honey has that puppy dog temperament that people love these Rockies for! She's 14.3 hands and the perfect age of 7 years old. She has a big heart and loves to gait and has a smooth 4 beat gait and an excellent work attitude and would flourish as an endurance horse or perfect for someone that rides a lot and needs one that will go all day! Honey will walk on a loose rein if she's in the front and goes great out alone but is a little competitive if behind other horses. Honey has had only 1 foal and is a wonderful Mom! Honey has some really nice bloodlines, she goes back to Tobe, Amigo Blue, Kilburn's Chocolate Sundown and Choco Dock plus Breeding can be arranged while she's at Deuces Wild Stables in Mt Sterling getting a refresher. She will remain there until she's sold so she's getting plenty of riding and has completed her first 30 days already and going on her 2nd month. Honey stands for mounting/dismount and loves to be pampered and bathed! She's extremely loving and wants to be right with you! She loads in the trailer and travels great also! If Honey sounds like a horse you've been looking for then watch her video to see just how awesome this Mare is!! Up to date on vaccines, worming, feet, coggins & health certificate.
