
Rare Bay Dun Yearling Colt

$ 6,500

Description

Paddy is a beautiful colt that is a rare Bay Dun color! His was born this year on Saint Patrick's Day 3/17! There's only 31 in the Rocky Mountain database so If you're a breeder Paddy can add lots of colors to your program! His color panel is below so you can see how rare he is! His Sire is the stunning Dun Juan that's a homozygous Bay Dun Stallion and his Dam a sweet Grulla mare that's so gentle kids ride her! Both his parents have wonderful sweet personalities and smooth gaits! His Sire & Dam both have exceptional breeding going back to the best of RM bloodlines like Old Tobe, Kilburn's Chocolate Sundown, Buddy Roe, Johnson's Toby, Sewell's Sam, Broken Bones Sam's Son and Sam Clemon's Tim! Paddy is hand raised and is very desensitized, in his video you can see him walking up to dogs barking and another stallion without hesitation! You can also see in his video a young kid riding his Dam! Paddy should mature to around 14.3 hands and just look at his Sire how beautiful he is so you can see what he'll look like! Paddy loves attention, leads great, picks his feet up, stands tied and current on worming and his vaccines! This beautiful rare colored colt will not last long! Owners will assist in delivery some also! Located in Raymondville, MO.
