

Gorgeous Silver Bay Roan Stallion At Stud

$ 700

Description

Sky's On Fire is a gorgeous Silver Bay Roan that's made his presence known in the show arena placing high and winning in both under saddle Trail Pleasure classes and in Conformation!! Standing at 15.1 Sky is a nice size to pair with any mare in your herd! Sky has shown his true worth however in the breeding shed he's producing the kind of Rocky Mountain horses that people are looking for to show, breed or as a level headed trail partner!! Sky passes his conformation, disposition and amazing gait to his offsprings!! He has been color tested and is Ee Rn Aa and nZ. The owners are confident enough in Sky's gentle nature that they put their young children on him to ride. Even as young as 4 years old his disposition was second to none! Sky has already become a grandsire to several foals with more on the way. He has thrown about every color offspring you can imagine such as several blue roans, red roan, red, black, silver bay, silver bay roan, chocolate roan, double chocolate roan, and of course bay roan. Owners are only accepting a limited number of mares for breeding and will need to see pedigrees of mares before making a decision on availability. You can see some of his beautiful offsprings below. Several are some accomplished show horses!! Sky's on Fire is standing at Whispering Oaks Farm in Taylorsville, KY at stud for the 2024-2025 breeding season!! Mare care is only $10 per day.
