
Stunning Well Gaited Neck Reining Trail Horse

$ 11,000

Description

Kate is a 15 hand drop down gorgeous chocolate with flaxen mane & tail! She's very supple and neck reins like a pro! She's coming 7 years old and has tons experience! She has excellent conformation and a puppy dog temperament! Owners have had her since she was a yearling and have done all her training themselves! Owners have sold their 110 acre farm and are going to do some traveling now so are selling her also. They purchased from a breeder and she the famous Union Blue as her Grandsire! Owners are avid trail riders and have taken her all over camping and trail riding! They've been to the big ride in Round County, Big South Fork, TN and several other places. She's been trained with gentle hands so she loves people and has that wonderful temperament that make these horses so popular! Kate runs to you in the field, gets along with other horses, rides out alone or in a group and if other horses go a different direction she will not fuss. They are use to seeing wildlife on the trails and both are well behaved horses! She'll go in creeks, mud and use to various terrain. Kate stands great for the Farrier, stands for a mounting block, cross ties, loves a bath, great ground manners and loads in the trailer like a pro! Kate would also be a wonderful mare to breed with since she has a great pedigree! Not only does she have Union Blue but her pedigree goes back to Sam Clemon's Tim, Buddy Roe and Choco Dock! She suitable for a confident Intermediate beginner rider. She does have some heart so if you do long trail rides Kate will not get lazy on you! Shes up to date on vaccines, Feet, worming, coggins and health cert! She is at Deuces Wild Stabled in Mount Sterling, KY to be sold
