

100% Homozygous Dark Grulla Stallion

$ 1,000

Description

The Preacher, a Rocky Mountain smokey black Grullo, will be standing at stud in Mount Sterling, Kentucky again in March 2026! Preacher is 15 Hands -Homozygous Dun and tested to throw Dun Stripes 100% to any color! As I understand it this is pretty rare! -Heterozygous Cream -Heterozygous Black -No Silver Preacher would be perfect to breed any color mare to! He is certified to breed available for AI or live cover! Watch Preacher's video to see his wonderful smooth gait! Keep in mind that his owners who are not trainers were able to start him under saddle! Preacher is so calm and smart, owners started him right with ground work when he was a yearling so he has had all Natural Horsemanship training from the start! Preacher will be back in KY again this year for the show season. Owners will allow outside breedings from March 1st. to the end of May this year. Preacher bred 6 mares last year and all will be coming this spring! Preacher has been shown last summer and placed in every class! He was shown at the 2025 Rocky Mountain International in the 3 yr old Country Trail Division and won High Points for 2025 RM 3 Yr Old Country Trail Division! Send us an Email for more details and to reserve your mare for 2026! He will be standing in Mount Sterling, KY. Mare care is $16 per day and A-I to a limited number of mares!
