Description

Dynomite is a drop dead gorgeous Champagne stallion that's easy to ride and be around! Owner has used Dynomite and to trail ride and has raised several foals out of him! Dynomite looks like a palomino but he's been color tested so can give you some color to your breeding program! He's very smooth Gaited and has a great temperament that he passes down to his offsprings! Breeder has kept some of the mares he's raised out of Dynomite so has decided to sell him since he has 2 other stallions to breed with. If you're looking for a wonderful breeding stallion that's easy to breed with and easy to ride look no farther!
