

Well Bred Easy To Ride Mare In Foal

$ 11,000

Description

This beautiful bay mare is the whole package! Excellent bloodlines, smooth gait, perfect conformation, sweet temperament and can show on Saturday night and trail ride the next day!! She's due to have her 3rd foal next month in May. Her last years foal is a beautiful red chocolate colt that is also available. Her first foal who is 5 years old is a stunning black show stallion that's already made a name for himself also! Her owner rode her up until a few months ago just to keep her in shape. She's great on the trails, will lead the group or fine out alone. A mare like this you can do many things with so she's very valuable and worth what the owner is asking so with the foal you'd be getting a huge bargain on her! She stands great for the farrier, mount, dismount, bathing. Ties, leads and loads. She's up to date on worming, feet trimmed, coggins and health certificate. Video shows her under saddle and also what she looks like currently. Below are some pics of the black Rocky Mountain stallion along with his papers that she's bred to. He doesn't have a red gene so her foal should be black or a beautiful bay and just look at his old pedigree!
