Description

Firewalkers Smokin Dream ("Ember") Foal Date: April 15, 2026 Color: Chocolate Spotted Breed Cross: Rocky Mountain Horse & Tennessee Walking If you are looking for a naturally gaited, future trail partner, Ember checks all the boxes. She is already showing incredible natural gait in the pasture and carries the genetics for a thick, beautiful mane and tail from both sides. And already showing that beautiful mane and tail. Dam: Fiddle's Southern Journey (Rocky Mountain Horse) | 14.1 H Sire: Firewalkers Ragin Inferno (Tennessee Walking Horse) | 15.0 H *The Dam (Journey): Owner's go-to horse for the grandkids. She possesses the gentle temperament required for young beginners, but readily steps up with energy and a smooth gait when asked. *The Sire (Firewalker): Good temperament and gait. His owner notes that he can sit in a pasture for months, yet you can pull him out and ride off seamlessly as if he is worked every single day. Ember has inherited the best traits of both breeds. She is built and minded to make a phenomenal, smooth-riding lifetime trail companion and with her unique coloring chocolate and white she will be a head turner on the trails!
