Description

Are you looking for a gorgeous level headed, kind and patient gelding that's safe for the whole family, if so look no further because here's a true Unicorn! Cornbread is a stunning golden palomino that is a great age at 13 and a gentle giant at 16 hands!! Owners have had him since he was 2 years old! This beautiful boy has been there done that and ready to do some more with some lucky person! He's been to numerous overnight stays so will stand great for a tie line, stay in a corral or in a stall. He's a real easy keeper, no special maintenance needed, gets along with his pasture mates and easy to catch. Cornbread is definitely a trail horse deluxe!! He's one that anyone can ride and has even been used to teach the owner's granddaughter to ride!! He'll go through deep water, mud puddles, crossed logs, does wonderfully in all types of terrain, the list goes on and on with this special guy!! Cornbread neck reins and will work off leg pressure at a gait!! This sweet boy stands quietly tied, for the farrier, to be saddled, will stand still so you can mount him from anything! Cornbread is one of those horses that is fun for the whole family to be with and ride!! This special gelding has it all brains, beauty, smooth gait and a phenomenal personality!!! Take a look at his video that shows just how amazing he really is!!! Located in Science Hill, KY.
